

DIAGNOSING SITUATIONS & MANAGING SELF: Leading Through Conflict

Ayres

Fleming-Randle

Courtesy photos

Tuesday, February 9, 2016

6:30 p.m.-8 p.m.

Wichita State University

Rhatigan Student Center, Lucas Room

PROTESTS ERUPTED AT MIZZOU. DISCONTENT AROSE AT WSU.

Ted Ayres, WSU's Director of Community Engagement and Opportunity and president-elect of the Mizzou Alumni Association, and Dr. Marché Fleming-Randle, WSU's newly-appointed Assistant to the President for Diversity, talk leadership in defining moments.

A Wichita Urban Professionals' LEAD ICT-UP exclusive in collaboration with WSU's Assistant to the President for Diversity, WSU's Office of Community Engagement and Opportunity and the Kansas Leadership Center

Open to ICT-UP members and prospective members Free. Refreshments provided.
Iterative, authentic dialogue • Q&A